Irish Housewife Begins Aid Fund For Oswald Widow

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP)—An Irish housewife has opened a fund to help the Russian widow of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy. Jane Addy said there was nothing political about her plan.

"I simply want to put into practice what President Kennedy himself always preached, brotherhood and tolerance," she told reporters Monday. "I thought Mr. Kennedy was a great man. My husband and ten-age son admired him, too. But I know exactly what the poor Russian woman is going through.

"Like every other woman, I feel a deep sympathy for Mrs. Kennedy but my thoughts keep going back to the other widow, the woman nobody wants."

Mrs. Addy, 48, is the wife of an automobile engineer.
